

Delegation Digest

APRIL 26-30 NEWSLETTER

Welcome to the final week of Session - Week 9. In this Week's edition of the Delegation Digest, we are highlighting legislation that was passed this week as well as member legislation that has passed this Session. In addition, we will highlight all member projects that made it into the budget.

Members in the House and Senate asked several questions and debated on the budget. The budget passed the House and Senate unanimously and it will now go to the Governor for approval. Once the Governor receives the budget he can use his veto pen to cut anything out before he approves it. This is called line-item veto, so what is in the budget now may not be there once approved by the Governor.

The House Sine Die at 2:40 pm on April 30, 2021.

Please look for our end-of-year report for a comprehensive look at the 2021 Legislative Session.
